

Real Time Sales Updates

Mobile Application Key Features

Sales Funnel

Sales is all about pipe line, show what you have done, how your future sales are going to look like

Take Orders

You just need to punch order once to make it visible to your backend and management instantly and clients also get instant confirmation of their order

Make Notes

Every time you visit a client he gives his inputs or there is something you learned or saw which you need to share other then just an order, text or click it and share it

Product Catalogue

Gone are the days for the paper brochure, show your clients all products and services on your mobile screen with pictures and detailed description

Assignments

Assign routes and tasks directly to individual representative with task date and time, keep a track of their the assignment completion, app will neither allow manager or sales rep to forget the task

Attendance

No more oral justifications, just start and end your day on application, this will maintain your attendance record on its own including the location capturing

Reminders

Enter exact dates and time when client wants you to contact next, get notification on the assigned date

GPS tracking

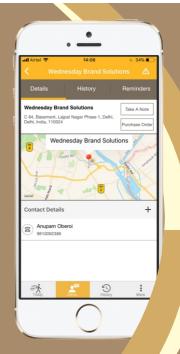

Show your live locations, where all you have been, with routes taken by you and time spent on each client on the world map, this record is maintained forever

Add Clients

Add new clients record from the mobile phone and show how many clients you have added to the company

Reports

See the history of work done by you and your teammates on the go, no more maintaining data else ware and making reports repeatedly on daily, weekly or monthly basis.

Web Dashboard Features

Landing Page

Macro analysis via graphs and charts of entire sales process in respect to product, people, locations, period etc. it receives instant notifications of all orders, notes & attendance

Location Tracking

See where your people have been on the world map, either watch them live or see where they were on the specific date or period

Company Records

Complete performance analytics of every sales rep from the date of joining to the present date, no longer waiting and calling the representatives for submitting reports

Managing Network

Management of clients data basis their location, category, product supplies etc. maintaining the history of all past communication and orders.

Product Management

Addition of products and any enhancement or price change communication to all sales representatives is no longer a tedious task, just do it by using your desktop

Data Base Management

We save entire history of transactions and all related data on cloud for you, which if you want you can export anytime, as we know this a most precious asset of any company

Application Management

Manage your application yourself by editing representatives, products & services, importing data of clients, exporting data for your offline records etc.